

RAWTEKK - 'Here's To Them'
Release date: 6th May
12"LP+CD // CD // Digital R
Released by: Med School Music

Fall deep down the rabbit hole with Rawtekk's 'Here's To Them' LP, a fascinating blend of innovative soundscapes and twisted dance floor compositions. Boasting years of experience in the world of professional sound design, Rawtekk's latest creation is a sonic masterpiece - a flawless follow-up to their stunning debut release on Med School back in 2013. Opening track, 'The Hatch', offers the rawest of introductions as Rawtekk welcome you to their world. A swarm of disorder lets rip in 'Here's To Them', chainsaw synths and head-banging chaos in 'Harbour' and tear-out, neuro drum-drillings fill 'Extinction'. Take a breath with the contrasting tranquility of 'K.I.A.', get gripped by the hauntingly delicate, 'My Love', and drift away with the wonderland whisperings of 'Restless', layered over a rumbling bassline. 'Here's To Them' is spider-web of electronic exploration, delivering a sinister, cinematic experience that is guaranteed to inspire the darker side of the imagination.
